

HARDSHIP & CRISIS RELIEF

for footwear families

Short-term emergency financial assistance is available to eligible footwear employees experiencing hardship or a natural disaster. If you've lost hours at your job, been displaced by a fire or flood, faced a family crisis such as divorce or a death in the family, or have medical bills due to a major health crisis, Two Ten may be able to help.

Two Ten typically responds to relief applications within two business days. The process is completely confidential. Interpretation services are available upon request. Apply online or by phone.
